

INTERNATIONAL LAW FIRM

TORRENTE VIGNONE

Experts in Mediation & Arbitration Worldwide™

Cordially invite you to attend a seminar "New International Approach and Implication for the Italian Legislation on Mediation"

24th November 2011 from 6 pm - 9 pm

The International Dispute Resolution Center (IDRC)
70 Fleet Street
EC4Y 1EU London

Torrente Vignone International Law Firm and Jams International are hosting an interesting event for members of the Italian Chamber of Commerce on the 24th November 2011 from 6pm-9pm at The International Dispute Resolution Center (IDRC).

This event will be a great opportunity for all members to be updated about the new means implemented in Italy to save costs and time in case a dispute arises.

We will present the characteristics of mediation proceedings and the advantages of choosing such option and provide with some practical tips to be used in the negotiation of your contracts.

During the event the guests will taste the finest wines offered by Cascina Amalia.

CASCINA IN LANGA

Agenda

5,45 pm Registration

6 pm Introduction to the event

6.10 pm The New Approach – International Dispute Mediation through an International Legal Network.

Speaker: Teresa Payne, Partner at Parfitt Cresswell, London

6.25 pm Mediation in Italy in the light of the new legislation

Speakers: Grazia Torrente and Alessandra Vignone partners at Torrente Vignone International law Firm, Milan

6.55 pm The rise of mediation in Europe in the wake of the EU Mediation Directive (2008)

Speaker: Matthew Rushton, JAMS International London

7.15pm Networking

For further information please email your name, company name, email and telephone number to

Helen Girgenti